PARK CITY RECOMMENDED RESTAURANTS

FIREWOOD

306 Main St

As the name suggests, menu items are prepared over an open flame using hardwoods like cedar, cherry and maple to create foods with rich flavors. The chef/owner is John Murcko, who has been a culinary fixture in Park City for more than three decades, most recently as the executive chef at Talisker. Firewood's decor features industrial finishes, reclaimed bricks and timbers and a private dining room called the Chef's Library. The Nickel Bar on the lower level allows guests to enjoy a cocktail without having to order food.

FLETCHER'S

562 Main Street

Enjoy sharing small plates or savor a large plate. Enjoy the menu of American cuisine which includes fresh, local, and natural food of the highest quality. The produce is from nearby farms practicing sustainable agriculture. Fletcher's goal was to create a restaurant and lounge that is dedicated to making people happy. Come for dinner and stay for the nightlife in the downstairs library lounge.

THE GLITRETIND AT STEIN ERIKSEN LODGE

7700 Stein Way, Silver Lake Village, Deer Valley

Located mid-mountain Deer Valley, Glitretind offers American food with the subtle details that define "New American Cuisine", prepared with the finest seasonal ingredients bought locally and from around the country. They serve breakfast, lunch, dinner, and Sunday brunch.

TUPELO

508 Main Street

The name reflects the chef's Southern roots to the Beehive State. The cuisine at Tupelo is the result of the farmers, fisherfolk, and artisans from cross-country travels. The creative menu explores "heirloom ingredient-driven cuisine" with a sincere focus on sustainability. Tupelo is the perfect restaurant to visit for contemporary American cuisine with a distinctive Southern twist. Also offering gluten free and vegan options.

ASIAN FUSION AND SUSHI

SHABU

442 Main Street

Shabu offers a freestyle interpretation of Asian cuisine. Shabu-Shabu hot pot cooking and sushi are just part of Nobu-trained Chef Robert Vailaika's unique menu. You won't want to miss their inventive offerings and sake martini bar.

WAHSO

577 Main Street

Warm finger towels, deep jade table settings, curtained booths, and attentive service are reminiscent of Shanghai during the 1930's. Start your evening off with a sake martini shaken table side, followed by an eclectic mix of Asian cuisine influenced by French cooking techniques.

BLIND DOG SEAFOOD & RAW BAR

1251 Kearns Boulevard

Blind Dog features Japanese ingredients prepared with East Coast originality and attitude. Classifying themselves as "Comfortable Class with a sense of humor to match", the extensive menu includes fine quality sushi, sashimi, hand cut steaks, and an extensive wine list and cocktail menu.

YUKI YAMA

586 Main Street

CHIMAYO

368 Main Street

Step through the door and you will think you stepped across the border. Festive lighting, wrought iron detail, Southwestern throw pillows, and an authentic Mexican tile floor create this fabulous illusion. Chimayo offers distinctive Southwestern cuisine. Chimayo's signature Margarita is a local favorite.

BREAKFAST AND LUNCH

FIVESEEDS

1600 Snow Creek Drive

Andrew and Tracy Percy opened this café hoping to replicate the breakfast-all-day cafés — or brekkies — they enjoyed while growing up in Australia. While both serve vegemite and toast with a smashed avocado and a poached egg, the menus differ.

SILVER STAR CAFÉ

1825 Three Kings Drive

Silver Star Cafe is an intimate, upscale rustic cafe with award-winning Roots Cuisine-- a contemporary, from-scratch, diverse expression of regional foods and flavors of the American Melting Pot. Featuring a cozy dining room with only 50 seats, and in warmer months, additional dining on a wrap-around outdoor patio and plaza with mountain views. Dinner reservations encouraged.

THE BRIDGE CAFÉ & GRILL

825 Main Street

The Bridge Cafe & Grill serves American food with a Brazilian Flair. Located directly at the bottom of the Town Lift on Main Street, it has one of Park City's best patios for spectacular outdoor dining. You can ski-in / ski-out right to the front door in the winter, or hop on the Town Lift for a scenic after-dinner chairlift ride in the summer.

ATTICUS COFFEE, BOOKS & TEAHOUSE

738 Main Street

A true local favorite, Atticus is a welcomes guest to stop in, sit down and enjoy a cup of coffee or swing by mid bike ride for a quick healthy snack.

FRESHIES LOBSTER COMPANY

1897 Prospector Avenue

Lobster rolls are the star attraction, made with Maine lobster shipped in fresh regularly, and served inside a split-top bun and drizzled with warm butter. The bright, casual eatery also serves lobster sliders, lobster lettuce cups, lobster salads and lobster bisque. And for an extra fee you can get your plain grilled cheese with lobster. Rounding out the menu are a respectable New England clam chowder, a few sides and locally made pies.

GROCERY CAFE

1375 Deer Valley Drive

Enjoy fresh roasted coffee and espresso drinks, soups, salads, panini, and other freshly baked items while overlooking the Deer Valley ponds and paddle boarding. The café also offers daily soup, sandwich, and salad specials.

HARVEST

820 Park Avenue

Café that serves light, healthy food in the updated Rio Grande Building. Worsley pays homage to her native Australia, offering customers toasted sourdough with vegemite and baked beans topped with poached eggs, herb ricotta and pistachios. There are Asian-inspired flavors as well, including Vietnamese pork belly roll, Thai beef salad and the Buddha bowl of goodness with brown rice, pumpkin puree, roasted tomato and fermented cabbage in a miso ginger dressing. Worsley worked with Park City's Hugo Coffee Roasters to replicate the flavor of her favorite Australian coffee, and she uses other local ingredients when possible, including bread and pastries from Eva's Bakery and eggs and honey from Clifford Farms.

HIGH WEST DISTILLERY

703 Park Avenue

The High West Distillery and Saloon is the worlds' only ski-in gastro-distillery. They are passionate about great whiskey, vodka, food, and American roots music. See firsthand how they make their award winning small batch Whiskeys. Only 21+ accepted. *Reservations not accepted.

RIVERHORSE PROVISIONS

221 Main Street

Park City's fine-dining favorite — Riverhorse on Main — gets a casual sibling. Part market, part café, this “gourmet noshery” is at the top of Main in the updated Imperial House. In the market, there are grab-and-go items as well as packaged foods like cheese, chips, olives, pasta, aspirin and diapers. The menu includes wild game chili and smoked beef brisket with kohlrabi slaw. Provisions also pays homage to Canadian poutine. Order the classic french fry dish with brown gravy and cheese or bump it up with roasted vegetables and black beans or chunks of tender elk, buffalo and venison.

ROYAL STREET CAFÉ

7600 Royal Street, Silver Lake Lodge, Deer Valley

Royal Street Café offers our award-winning cuisine with scenic deck dining. Serving lunch, après ski, and dinner. Menu options include creative appetizers, salads, paninis, Deer Valley's famous Turkey Chili, and specialty entrees. Fine wines and seasonal cocktails are also available.

WASATCH BREW PUB

250 Main Street

A local favorite, the Wasatch Brew Pub serves its award-winning beers along with a full bar. The menu offers comfort food at an affordable price. The pub offers beautiful decks for outside dining. Prime sports viewing and pool tables are available in the Cantina.

WINDY RIDGE CAFÉ

1250 Iron Horse Drive

Windy Ridge Café's fresh ingredients, homemade soups, pastries, breads, and fast service define this wonderful eatery. Serving lunch and dinner daily, come to enjoy this convenient alternative to dining on Main Street.

Please note, restaurants may observe closures. We recommend securing reservations in advance to ensure availability.
