MONTAGE INTERNATIONAL APPOINTS MANDY HOLLOWAY AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

ORANGE COUNTY, CALIF. (November 1, 2018) – Montage International is pleased to announce the appointment of Mandy Holloway to the position of senior vice president, human resources. Holloway is an award-winning, global human resources and learning executive with more than 10 years of exceptional talent acquisition and management experience in the hospitality and entertainment industries. In her role, Holloway will be responsible for all aspects of human resources strategy and execution, organizational planning and development, and will oversee key administrative functions for the company.

“We are excited to welcome Mandy to the Montage International team, as she brings a wealth of experience and an enviable record of success within hospitality and entertainment,” said Jason Herthel, president and chief operating officer of Montage International. “With her expertise in human resources, talent acquisition and more, Mandy will be an invaluable asset to our team as our company continues to grow.”

Prior to Montage International, Holloway served as vice president of human resources & employee engagement at Universal Studios Hollywood, NBCUniversal in Universal City, California, where she managed operational staffing, employer branding, employee engagement, communications and team member programs. Prior to that, Holloway held various management and human resources roles in top hospitality companies around the world including Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. and Hard Rock International in Florida, and The Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company in Maryland.

Throughout her career, Holloway has been involved with several key awards and accolades including being named #1 Overall Leader, Customer Satisfaction “Upper Upscale Hotels” by Market Metrix Hospitality Index while at Hard Rock International; rated as #1 in Training Magazine’s Top 100 Training Organization Awards while at The Ritz-Carlton; and earning the Top Young Trainer Award by Training Magazine.

Holloway graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree with honors in hospitality/tourism studies from Bournemouth University in the United Kingdom.
