Unveiling in conjunction with the resort, Montage Residences Healdsburg will offer an exclusive private ownership opportunity, which includes a collection of 25 turn-key Harvest homes and 15 build-ready Estate homesites. The residential designs blend seamlessly into the contours of the land, emphasizing privacy and indoor-outdoor living for those seeking a true wine country retreat.

“I’m honored to formally debut Montage’s first property in Northern California,” said Allen Highfield, General Manager of Montage Healdsburg. “We are grateful to open our doors during this time, offering a place of comfort and respite to our community and beyond with warm hospitality, memorable dining and amenities and programming for the whole family. Guests have the exclusive opportunity to join Katz for tastings at his nearby winery, Aperture Cellars.

Montage Healdsburg’s accommodations offer stunning views of the surrounding heritage oak forest and one-third of each space is dedicated to outdoor living with a balcony or deck. The in-room amenity line is created in partnership with clean, vegan brand Gloss Moderne, featuring an exclusive fragrance inspired by the scents of California; the resort will be the first property within the brand to debut the new amenity line. In addition to Gloss Moderne, the resort features Bãeo Essential Organics a clean, plant-based skincare line as its family amenity, for guests traveling with young children. The crown jewel of Montage Healdsburg is the Guest House. Elevated high on a knoll with sprawling views of Mount St. Helena and the rolling vineyards of the Alexander Valley, the three-bedroom, modern retreat is the resort’s largest suite, spanning 4,600 square feet of indoor-outdoor living space. To enhance guest comfort in the privacy of their rooms, the resort’s expansive in-room menu, created by Executive Chef Jaron Dubinsky, offers a compelling private dining experience with signature offerings including local cheese and Journeyman charcuterie, Wagyu flat iron steak and a range of savory side options.
