

AMANDA NORMAN | ARTIST & FOUNDER, AMANDA NORMAN STUDIOS

An award-winning artist, Amanda has gained clients from coast to coast including interior designers, art collectors and celebrities. Her work is shown in galleries throughout the country and has been placed in homes and corporate collections throughout the world. Norman's paintings have appeared in national publications such as Country Living, Wed Luxe and Traditional Home.

Amanda graduated with honors from Brown University with a degree in Visual Art. She also studied graphic design at The New School in NYC as well as sculpture and site-specific installation at RISD's Pont Aven School of Art in France.

"My favorite part about painting is how it relates to the process of life. Some strokes are carefully thought out; others are happy accidents. In the end, it's the intersection of the deliberate and the unexpected that is most authentic and exciting."

Amanda lives happily in Nashville with her son Ward and their dog, George.
